2022 Employee & Program Participant Art Show

- Regardless of ownership, the art is expected to remain hanging in the show for the duration of the Art Show.
- Once you have received payment, please contact iddartshow@multco.us or Natasha MacDonald 503-988-6273 to confirm receipt of payment. You will need to provide the buyers name, phone, and email so we know who to release the art to at the end of the show.

Liability & Privacy:

The art will be displayed in an area that is not open to the public; however, it will be visible to Multnomah County Employees and their guests. Your name and art will be visible to the public if you have chosen to participate in the Online Gallery. IDD Art Committee reserves the right to photograph the artwork for archival purposes.

By signing this registration form, I hereby grant permission to the Multnomah County IDD program to display my art previously listed. I acknowledge and hold harmless Multnomah County IDD for any theft or damage that may occur to my art while in the custody of Multnomah County IDD. Staff will handle art with care and it will be maintained in a secure building.
